

MINERS WAITING FOR WORK ORDER

HEAR PLOT TO WRECK SEVERAL HOUSES

Expect Trouble That Begun Last Year In Orchards To Be Resumed

LOS ANGELES, Dec. 11.—Guards will be placed around many Southern California packing houses tonight under direction of Sheriff Cline as a result of the uncovering of an alleged red plot to destroy orange packing plants.

Sheriff Cline said he had information that plans to wreck the packing houses at Covina, Glendora, Azusa, Pomona, Charter Oak, San Dimas and Monrovia were afoot.

Last year when the orange picking season opened much trouble was experienced in those districts with alleged radical agitators.

No information had been received by Sheriff C. E. Jackson in Santa Ana up to 2 o'clock this afternoon, regarding the alleged plot by "Red" propagandists to destroy orange packing plants in Southern California. It was not thought that any citrus houses in Orange county were included in the alleged conspiracy of the radicals.

STERLING DEMAND AND LIRE CHECKS GO DOWN

NEW YORK, Dec. 11.—Sterling demand and lire checks made new low records on the foreign exchange here today, sterling opening at $3.7125 and lire at 13.52. France was strong, checks being quoted at 11.32.

Shortly after the opening, sterling reacted to $3.7025. Marks were quoted at $0.1985.

OVERALLS UNIFORM IN LITTLE ROCK SCHOOL

LITTLE ROCK, Ark., Dec. 11.—The Searcy high school, through its superintendent, has declared war on the high cost of living and has decreed that blue denim overalls be the accepted uniform of the school, to be worn by himself and the boys students. Girls, too, are to be enrolled in the fight, and while they are not to wear overalls, as did the wartime farmerette, they are to do their bit by wearing cotton stockings. Superintendent Woodward declared that girls will not be permitted to wear silk stockings to school.

PRINCE ARTHUR SUBS FOR FATHER AS KING

LONDON, Dec. 11.—Prince Arthur of Connaught was suddenly called on recently to take his indisposed father's place as proxy of King George at an investiture, a duty he performed several times before and afterward. He has been the substitute for the king often more than any other member of the royal family, and a brother officer once suggested that he put on his note paper the words, "Monarchs represented on short notice."

DENTAL NEEDLES CUT OUT OF MAN'S MOUTH

SHELBYVILLE, Ind., Dec. 11.—X-ray pictures of the mouth of Harry Howell, son of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Howell, of Marion Township, Shelby county, disclosed two pieces of steel dental needles, each slightly less than two inches long. It is believed they had been left there by an Indianapolis dentist recently when Howell had teeth extracted. Operations for the removal of the two pieces of steel needles were made by incisions from the back of the neck.

STAY OF DEPORTATION.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 11.—The supreme court today granted a stay of deportation to Emma Goldman, anarchist leader, until a complete record of her case is submitted to the court. The record must be submitted before next Thursday.

Los Angeles Sheriff To Guard Packing Plants Against Threatened Red Raids

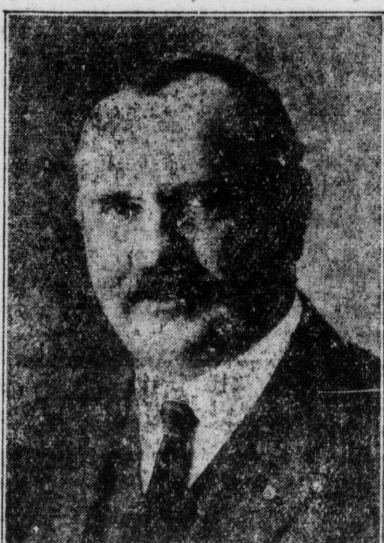

Production And Thrift, Not "Slavery," California's Need

State Treasurer Protests Against Bringing In Chinese Labor

SACRAMENTO, Dec. 11.—Regarding the proposed importation of Chinese into California as a return to a form of slavery as objectionable as African slavery, State Treasurer Friend W. Richardson today declared if Americans can be encouraged to greater production and to the practice of thrift, there will be no need for Chinese "slaves."

"Evidently there is a big campaign on, backed by ample funds, to bring half a million or more Chinese to this coast," he said. "Lovers of our great country should arise and smite this plan before it gathers great headway. The bringing of Chinese to this coast under contract would in effect be establishing a form of slavery shocking to the principles of Americanism."

"The two great needs in this state today are greater production and the practice of thrift. Bankers of the country districts can do much to encourage thrift."

FRIEND W. RICHARDSON

"America wants only those foreigners who can be made into good citizens, and wants them only of those races and in the limited numbers which can be assimilated."

AUTOS, JITNEYS NOW THREATEN ELECTRIC CARS

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 11.—Jitneys, motor trucks, nickel fares and soaring prices. All these threaten to bring about the financial collapse of electric railways in California.

In its annual report, submitted to Governor Stephens, the State Railroad commission tells the story.

"The electric railways have met in the recent past a most formidable and determined competitor—the automobile. Both the private automobile and the jitney have made enormous inroads on the passenger traffic that was formerly dependent upon electric railways."

"The automobile truck is an even more serious competitor in the freight traffic field, for the electric interurban railways almost without exception are depending for their freight revenue on short-haul business."

"And yet it is clear that both the passenger automobile and the freight auto truck as competitors of the steam and electric railways are even now only in the first stages of their development."

"Electric railway utilities find it more and more difficult to obtain necessary new capital and for many companies they only escape from financial collapse is through drastic reorganization."

"The high cost of living has borne heavily on the electric railway business more than any other industry for the reason that for street railways the standard fare has been a nickel. Not only have franchise provisions fixed on this unit, but the five cent fare has become an institution for American cities."

CARRANZA GARRISON ATTACKED BY VILLA

EL PASO, Dec. 11.—Reports of a two day attack by 400 Villistas upon the Carranza garrison at Musquiz, 100 miles south of the border were received here today. The insurgents under Hipolito Villa were said to have taken the town, looting stores and holding several prominent citizens as hostages. The attack took place Tuesday and was continued Wednesday. Thirty Villistas and several federal troops were reported killed. The attack was planned the report said to avenge the execution of General Angeles.

Carranza troops are mobilizing 25 miles from Musquiz for an attack on the Villistas.

HAULS PENNIES TO BANK.

DAYTON, Ohio, Dec. 11.—W. M. Cox, a newsdealer, engaged a truck to take 350,000 pennies to the bank. He had been saving them since April and there had been a penny shortage in the town.

WASTE OF TIME TRYING TO CUT COST OF LIVING

BAKERSFIELD, Cal., Dec. 11.—It would be a waste of time for California mayors to attempt to formulate a plan to reduce the high cost of living, in the opinion of Mayor W. F. Toomey of Fresno, who arrived here to attend the conference this afternoon of mayors of San Joaquin valley cities. Municipal revenue and taxation problems were to be considered at the meeting.

"Men who have been working on this matter from the Washington end of the line and who are supposed to have the influence of the government back of them, cannot figure out any proposition. It looks to me as though it would be a waste of time for us to try to do anything," asserted Mayor Toomey.

"In my opinion the only thing we could do would be to try to ascertain whether in our own communities the extra cost of commodities such as bread, milk, meats or anything is too high and the only way to find this out is for the mayor of each town to appoint a commission to investigate these matters and provide funds for this commission to work on—provided the mayor and council have the power to appoint such a committee."

The meeting was called by the mayors of Fresno, Bakersfield and Visalia. About 140 mayors are expected to arrive today.

PORCH CLIMBER GETS $2,425 WORTH GEMS

LOS ANGELES, Dec. 11.—The Los Angeles porch climbing burglar who had been operating in the exclusive residential districts for the last few weeks, secured $2,425 worth of diamonds, pearls and jewelry when he robbed the home of Mrs. W. W. Gray in Berkeley Square last night, the police were notified today. The burglar entered the second story of the Gray home by climbing up a pillar while the family was in the dining room. A police flying squadron recently organized to patrol the city at night has been instructed to concentrate in the residential district in an effort to catch this man.

OREGON UNIVERSITY TO REPRESENT WEST

PASADENA, Dec. 11.—The Pasadena tournament of Roses committee at noon today voted to select the University of Oregon football team to represent the west in the national football championship game here on New Year's day. Harvard will represent the east, the tournament committee having received a telegram today stating that Harvard would come.

THIRD PARTY PLATFORM IS MADE PUBLIC

ST. LOUIS, Dec. 11.—The platform of a proposed third party in the presidential election next year was submitted to the "conference of liberals" here today. Planks suggested to the conference dealt with numerous national problems including trusts, foreign relations, labor and agriculture.

The conference comprises representatives of the Non-Partisan league, the Labor party and "liberals" from other parties.

The platform committee reported in favor of extreme public ownership, relaxation of patent laws and joint operation of railroads and public utilities by the owners, workers and the public, extension of the senate's power for initiating and approving treaties and an end to the executive sessions of the senate.

The report opposed military training, favored disarmament and a vote of the people to declare war except in case of actual invasion.

TREATY RATIFICATION FAVORED BY LOWDEN

LOS ANGELES, Dec. 11.—Governor Frank O. Lowden of Illinois, prominent among Republican presidential possibilities, favors ratification of the peace treaty with reservations, he wired today to Major Frank S. Hutton, of Los Angeles.

Major Hutton recently wired Lowden and General Wood asking that they go on record with regard to the peace treaty. General Wood has not yet replied. Governor Lowden wired:

"I think the treaty should be ratified with reservations substantially as adopted by the senate."

Stores, 93 1/4, off 1/4; General Motors, 336, up 2 1/2; Republic Steel, 106 1/2; Studebaker, 108 1/4, up 3/4; Corn Products, 88, up 1/2; Southern Pacific, 103 3/4, up 1/2; Baldwin, 107 1/4, up 3/4; Midvale at 50, up 1/4, and U. The Register Gives News of World While It Is Fresh

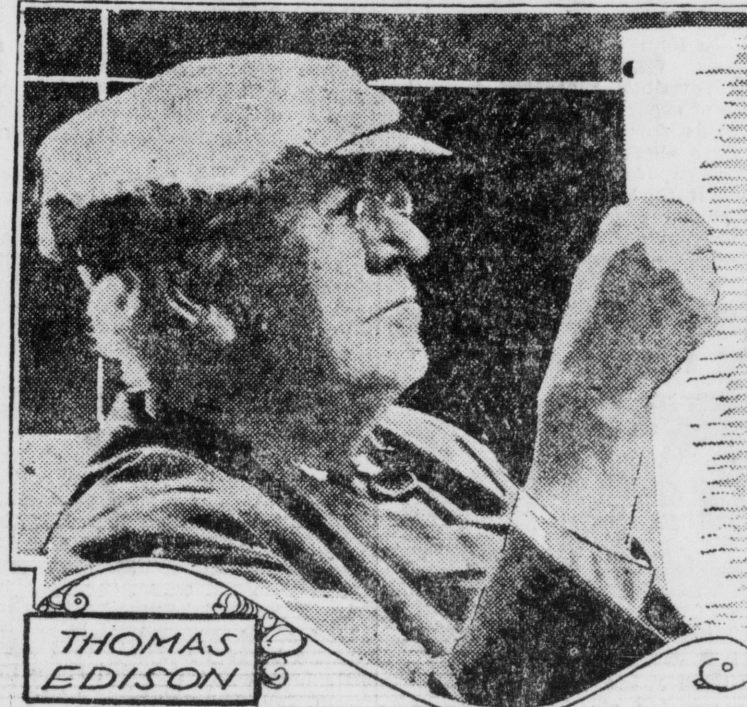

THE Register is giving Santa news while it is new and folks don't have to wait for the next morning's paper to learn what is going on in the world.

Yesterday the Register beat the Los Angeles afternoon papers here with the settlement of the coal strike, also with the decision on the time and place of the Republican National convention, and a lot of other items of lesser importance.

The morning papers today also carried these same stories in prominent places many hours after the Register had taken them into your homes.

And none of them had the intimate, detailed, local news about yourself and neighbor that you just must read and that you will find in no other paper than The Register.

Photographer Snaps Edison Reading Barber Shop Paper

Inventor Caught As He Is Waiting For Henry Ford To Get Shaved

SPRINGFIELD, Mass., Dec. 11.—Thomas A. Edison is not working as hard as formerly, although he hides himself in his laboratory frequently and experiments with various inventions. He is spending considerable time with his friends, Henry Ford the flivver maker, and John Burroughs, naturalist.

Mr. Edison is not keen on posing for pictures as he says he has been photographed plenty, but the other day he was caught napping by a press photographer.

Mr. Edison was sitting in a barber shop here waiting for Ford to get shaved and for Mr. Burroughs to return from the telephone office nearby, where he had went to send a telegram. He was reading a newspaper close to a big window and the light was just right for the picture. The photographer, unnoticed by Mr. Edison, took a snapshot of him and after he had it he thanked the great inventor and in the same breath asked him if he objected.

Edison just smiled in his kindly way and said that since the photographer had the picture it didn't matter, but he didn't care to pose for any more.

RAIN CONTINUING IN NORTHERN CALIFORNIA

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 11.—Continued rain throughout northern California was predicted by the United States weather bureau for tonight and Friday. The storm which has been gripping Oregon and the northern part of this state is slowly dissipating and storm warnings have been removed along the coast north of Point Reyes. From the Golden Gate south to Santa Barbara the warnings are still displayed, the weather bureau reported.

Heavy rain fell throughout the state north of the Tehachapi during the 24 hours ending at five a. m. today.

SENTENCED ON CHARGE OF FALSE ADVERTISING

LOS ANGELES, Dec. 11.—Joseph Gross, who runs a downtown tailor shop under the name of "James W. Hackett, of New York" is under a 90 day suspended sentence today, the result of one of the first prosecutions under the city advertising law. Gross admitted that he fraudulently advertised "seventy-five dollar suits for fifty dollars."

CHINESE GIVEN GATE AFTER SEVEN YEARS

PEKING, Dec. 11.—The Chienmen gate of the capital, under guard of American troops since the turbulent days of 1912, has been taken over again by Chinese authorities.

For the seven years the Americans held it without interruption except on national anniversaries and on the occasion of the funeral of Yuan Shikai, which passed through the famous gate.

The government requested restoration of control of the gate, to which minister of foreign powers agreed.

SOME BACK ON JOBS IN EASTERN STATES

Operations of Mines Will Be Normal Next Week Is Belief

WASHINGTON, Dec. 11.—The gigantic strike machinery of the United Mine Workers of America was still carried forward by its own impetus today, despite the fact its power was shut off by its engineers late yesterday.

Indications were that the coal strike—technically ended when miners' officials accepted President Wilson's settlement proposal in Indianapolis yesterday—would actually continue until formal notice of the decision had been received.

Reports from various bituminous fields today showed that in only scattering communities were men responding to the call to return to the mines. Only a few stragglers were coming back in Illinois, Pennsylvania, Indianapolis and Ohio. Confidence was expressed, however, that work would reach normal next week. All Michigan miners were back. The situation in Kansas is complicated by state operation of the mines.

Restrictions on coal consumption were expected to continue for several weeks—until such times as another reserve has been acquired.

Must Work Together For Settlement Says Wilson

WASHINGTON, Dec. 11.—"We must all work together to see that a settlement just and fair to everyone is reached without delay," President Wilson said today in a telegram to Acting President Lewis of the United Mine Workers of America.

"May I not express to you and through you to the other officers of your organization my appreciation of the patriotic action which you took at Indianapolis yesterday," the telegram added.

Announcement of the members of the commission to investigate miners' wages and operators' profits will be made at the White House after Attorney General Palmer returns to Washington today or tomorrow.

White House officials stated definitely that the third member of the committee would not be connected with the government.

The Secretary of the Treasury is directed to submit to the senate a statement of dividends paid during 1917 and 1918 by the bituminous coal mining companies in a resolution offered in the senate today by Sen.

Fuel Restrictions to Be Continued In Middle West

CHICAGO, Dec. 11.—Fuel restrictions continued in force throughout the Middle West today.

Officials of the railroad and fuel administration said regulation would be necessary for at least a month and no general lifting of the ban on industry and trade could be expected immediately despite the end of the coal strike.

Although some shipments from Illinois mines may arrive in Chicago next week, relief on a large scale cannot be expected before Christmas, according to experts.

The railroad administration arranged to rush all "empties" to the main fields at once in order that the least possible delay may be experienced when production actually starts.

Reports from the midwestern mine fields indicated radicals would not be sufficiently strong among the miners to prevent a general return to work.

TERRE HAUTE, Ind., Dec. 11.—No miners here returned to work today. They were awaiting the official order to return. Reports from other sections of the state, however, showed many mines running on normal schedule. At Petersburg the Globe Mining Company opened a strip mine at midnight last night and started normal production of thirty-five cars a day. Nearly all other mines in this region were ready to be reopened today.

LIFE OF HENRY ADAMS ABLY REVIEWED

Widely Divergent Aspects of Book Make Is Very Interesting

In point of attendance, brilliancy of effort in the presentation of the theme by the reviewer, and the animation of discussion participated in by the members, Tuesday evening's meeting of the Book Review Club was a splendid occasion.

An audience of one hundred people greeted Mrs. A. J. Crookshank, the speaker of the evening, who reviewed that widely-read book, "The Education of Henry Adams." The character of the book makes it a difficult subject to handle in any review. There are widely divergent aspects and multiplicity of interests. Hence it is, probably, that this production has appealed to so many different types of mind.

The student of political history will find delight in the author's personal reminiscences, dealing with American statesmen, and his experiences in European court circles. Henry Adams met great men who were shaping great issues in a great period, and these accounts by Adams furnish lasting contributions to the history of the last century.

The student of literature will find in this volume marvelous English, a model of classic excellence, forcefulness and fine discrimination of word and phrase, rare indeed in this day of superficial attention to nicety of diction.

As biography, it is no less notable as the intimate revealing of a man's life, the story of his ancestry, his childhood influences and surroundings, the ideals of youth, the experiences of mature manhood and the sadness of declining years.

And lastly, there is the philosophical aspect of the "Education of Henry Adams," the story of a life-long search for some clue to the meaning of existence, some background that would invest the individual life with the glow of Eternal Purpose and make it supremely worth while. And herein he failed, in his own estimation at least. For as the shadows lengthened, the sense of having failed in his quest found pathetic utterance in the words, "Life has become almost intolerable." He sought "education," and that which he found was only the ashes of disappointment.

Was his life really a failure as he believed? In the discussion which followed, this point elicited various opinions from the audience. What-ever conclusion may be reached in this regard, one outstanding fact appears: thoughtful minds all over the country have found something of tremendous interest and significance in the life experiences of Henry Adams, and perhaps in ultimate results the contribution of Henry Adams to the thought life of his time will be appraised as highly as that of any other member of this illustrious Adams family. At least this seemed to be the trend of opinion on the part of some of the participants in the discussion.

Mrs. Crookshank's review was well-nigh perfect in pointing out the salient features of this life story. She told of his remarkable ancestry. It is a unique station in life to be able to have a grandfather and a great-grandfather as presidents of the United States of America, to go as private secretary to a father who was appointed ambassador to the court of St. James, to associate with the statesmen and intellectuals of a brilliant era. Such a combination of rare opportunities probably never came to any other man.

This autobiography was first published privately for circulation among intimate friends at their solicitation. The present volume is edited by the author's life-long friend and pupil, Henry Cabot Lodge, who refers to it as the most remarkable disclosure of a personality ever met with in the English language. Henry Adams is not widely known as a writer, but nevertheless he has published much, notably nine volumes in the American Statesmen series. He wrote frequently for magazines on a wide range of subjects.

CHILD WELFARE STATION DOES MUCH GOOD

Mrs. Carrie N. Leebrick Makes Statement Concerning the Work

An excellent work is being done by the Child Welfare Station conducted by the Social Service League at 115 East Third street. Mrs. Carrie N. Leebrick, secretary of the Social Service League, has issued a statement in which she sets forth the purpose of the station. Her statement follows:

"We wish to call the attention of mothers to the Child Welfare Station which is open every Thursday, from 1 to 2 o'clock. The work done in connection with this station corresponds to the medical inspection of school children, and is only for the children of pre-school age. The particular benefit is for the mother, however, for when the doctor is examining the child he has in mind the fact that he is educating the mother and not treating a patient. He is neither writing prescriptions for a nurse, nor giving instructions to a nurse, but he is trying to get at the bottom of a mother's difficulties and is fitting his advice to her individual case."

"We have a number of new cases registered the past month and some re-examinations. We are hoping that every child in the city under 6 years of age will be brought here for a health test."

"The county physician has office hours at this office every Tuesday morning and will be glad to see any one who wishes to consult him at that time."

Mrs. Leebrick's report for the work done by the Social Service League in November follows:

"Number of calls at the office—In person, 192; by telephone, 85; total, 277."

"Calls made by secretary—in person, 35; by telephone, 81; total, 116."

"Number of persons applying for workers, 49."

"Number of persons applying for work, 39."

"Work found for 19 different persons 29 times through the month. Of these, 6 places are permanent."

"New names listed for work only, 11."

"We will be pleased to have every one looking for work list with us as we have a number of positions open which we have been unable to fill."

"Number of cases handled through the month—new, 2; recurrent, 26; transient, 2."

"Assistance secured—Material, 8; medical, 2."

"Four cases were referred to other societies for assistance."

SANTA ANAN MAY BUILD BLOCK AT NEWPORT

James Adkins Contemplates Erection of 2-Story Structure at New Harbor

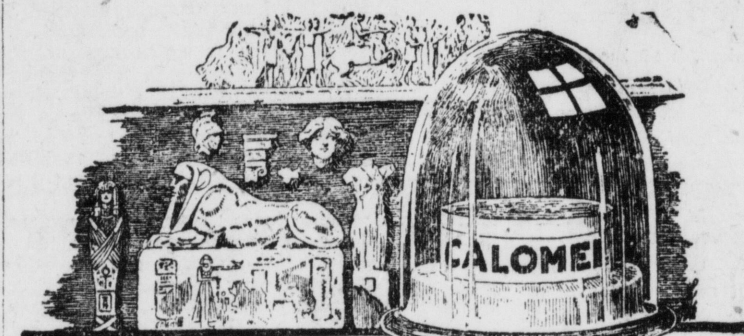

NEWPORT BEACH, Dec. 11.—The addition of a substantial brick two-story business block to Newport's business district is being seriously contemplated by James Adkins of Santa Ana, it became known recently while Mr. Adkins was on a visit here. His lots are located between 23rd street and the Barker-O'Meara block.

"Mr. Adkins," says the Newport News, "is a keen, shrewd business man, who has been successful in everything which he has tackled, and foresees an unprecedented era of prosperity and advancement in store for this city, and, being able to finance the building of a brick block of pretentious proportions, it only remains for him to decide that the time is now ripe for the beginning of such an improvement."

"Optimism begets enthusiasm, which, mixed with a determination to do things, starts the ball to rolling, and progress and achievement are the result. Mr. Adkins says that the eyes of Santa Ana and all of Orange county are turned toward Newport Beach, and the principal topic of conversation is about Orange county harbor and the bright prospects of this community."

"If he decides to build, Mr. Adkins said that he would put up a building suitable for a dance hall, picture theater, or any line of business desired by the lessee."

HOOVER'S REPORT

Herbert Hoover has made a preliminary report upon the American relief administration. He says that it will return to the United States government approximately $88,750,000 of the $100,000,000 appropriated by congress for relief in Europe. This will be returned in the form of treasury notes from the European governments that shared in the relief work. The remainder of the fund, or about one-eighth of it, was expended, he says, for supplies which were donated on a charitable basis, for which there will be no reimbursement. All relief supplies were purchased in the United States and the only moneys expended outside were for local freight and handling charges in Europe.

Poland received more than half of the money spent—$57,000,000. Armenia came next with $10,000,000. Other countries which shared were Czechoslovakia, Russia, Estonia, Latvia, Lithuania and Finland.

A "business administration" is always being promised some hopeful city or state by the candidate who realizes the deep-down longing of every decent citizen to have the affairs of his community conducted with the sanity, competence and thrift which accompany a successful business. Here, all quietly and modestly, with no tooting of horns, with no glittering promises whose gold proves but tinsel when put to the test, comes the successful conclusion of a great "business administration."

MONEY ORDERS

Though exchange rates are heavily in favor of the United States—that is, a dollar today is exchangeable for a good deal more than 100 cents in foreign money—this advantage is lost when the money is sent abroad in the form of postoffice money orders.

The man who buys at his postoffice a money order for England or France or Italy or Germany gets an order for precisely the same number of shillings, francs, lire or marks that he would have got before the war, in spite of the fact that a dollar is now worth about five shillings instead of four, 10 francs or lire instead of five, and 40 marks instead of four. Thus the receiver of the money order, at the other end, is cheated, getting less money, or less purchasing power, than he is entitled to.

The United States government is not doing any deliberate cheating; it is the natural result of a system regulated by treaties, which works both ways, sometimes putting money into Uncle Sam's pocket and sometimes taking it out. The results to the people concerned are none the less unfortunate.

There is an easy way out of the difficulty. Instead of buying a postal money order, go to a banker. He will give the sender a foreign draft that can be cashed by the receiver for all the money coming to his under the current exchange rate. That is, if the banker is honest. The foreign quarters of American cities are infested with crooked bankers. Only those of known dependability should be trusted in such transactions.

FALSE STANDARDS

In September, 1918, the duty collected in the New York custom house on dressed furs was $8,030. In September, 1919, the duty collected on dressed furs was $517,532. In September of last year imported beads paid a duty of $145,544; in September of this year, $952,630. For ostrich feathers the figures are—last September, $77,373; this September, $410,801. For pearls—last September, $123,547; this September, $654,312. For cut diamonds—last September, $494,221; this September, $6,644,774. Silk veilings—last September, $82,398; this September, $372,048. So it goes, through a long list of articles classed as "luxuries."

Some of these increases represent a natural response to a demand which foreign dealers could not supply last year on account of the war. But most of it is due to the sudden craze for luxuries in this country. The figures would be still more impressive if they were obtainable for October and November. The demand has been growing right along, in spite of high prices, industrial troubles and everything else.

It may be argued that people with money have a right to spend it for whatever they like. Perhaps they have. Still, the situation today is at least unfortunate. Increased imports are highly desirable; but the imports most needed are standard commodities to supplement our own domestic store—not costly things that the nation could easily do without. And indirectly all the expenditure for luxuries is bad in many ways. Weak souls everywhere are tempted beyond their means. It sets false standards of life, false standards of prices, false standards of goods.

"DEMOCRATIC SIMPLICITY"—Huh!

On estimates of government expenses totaling $4,560,000,000 received from the Democrats last year, the Republican Congress effected a saving of $1,686,000,000 to the taxpayers. This year the administration comes back with a request for $4,865,000,000, with probably another large sum to come in later as supplemental. Congress ought to trim this estimate down by nearly $2,900,000,000 and still leave enough to keep going under strict bureau economy.

Who remembers the day when the Democrats used to scold the Republicans whenever the annual appropriation bills totaled over $1,000,000,000? "We denounce the profligate waste of the money wrung from the people by oppressive taxation through the lavish appropriations of recent Republican congresses, which have kept taxes high and reduced the purchasing power of the people's toil. We demand a return to that simplicity which befits a democratic government and a reduction in the number of useless offices, the salaries of which drain the substance of the people." Thus it ran in the Democratic platform of 1912, for instance.

At that time the federal government employed in Washington about 27,000 persons in the various departments. Almost that number are now employed by the War Risk Bureau alone. It is estimated that 107,000 persons are now on the payrolls in Washington offices, and the rolls have been correspondingly swollen outside of the Capital City. The "simplicity which befits a democratic government?" Huh.

London University has appropriated $2,500,000 for phonetic research, to simplify the languages of the East and thus facilitate commercial intercourse. Why bother about a phonetic language when there are phony languages right at hand—Esperanto and Volapuk, for instance?

Invest In Dollars

Riverside Press—
"A dollar is about the cheapest thing there is today," advertises a savings bank. "Why not buy up a few every week, put them in a bank and wait for a rise in value?" Don't that set one to thinking? We have heard much about the "cheapness" of dollars, and have usually thought of that quality only in connection with spending them. It is true that they will not buy much today. Because of this very depreciation people become more reckless. "A dollar has a little value," they say. "What good is it? Might just as well get rid of it. Anyway, there are plenty more where it came from."

But the supply is not going to last forever. The flow of dollars will not always be so plentiful as it has been lately—all financial history teaches that. Money fluctuates in value like other things; it has its period of plenty and cheapness and then its period of comparative scarcity and dearth. A dollar may never again buy quite so much of the commodities of life as it did before this war, but it will certainly buy more some time than it does now. That time may not be far distant, either.

This is the time, therefore, to make a good cash investment. Take a flier in dollars. Hang onto some of the money flowing through your hands—you can probably grab more now than you ever could before—and stick it in the savings bank before it gets away from you. This is a perfectly sound business idea, which any financial expert will endorse. While you take these dollars out of the bank, after a while, they will buy a good deal more of the things you want than they will now. Meanwhile, the bank will pay you for the privilege of taking care of your investment.

Thumbs Down

Joplin (Mo.) Herald—
We've got every sympathy in the world for the reasonable demands of labor—but we're thumbs down for the gang who are now trying to sandbag the government and the public just because they've got a strong union with money hoarded in their treasury. The public can't afford to surrender in this case. The time has come for public sentiment to prove that the nation and the rights of the people are greater than any group or clique, whether they be mine workers or mine owners.

A FAITH THAT CANNOT KNOW DEFEAT

An Interpretation of the Undaunted Faith of the American Nation in the Triumph of Law and Love and in the Coming of Peace Among Nations and Brotherhood Among Men.

By WILBUR FISK TILLET
Vanderbilt University

The War of Love 'Gainst Love of War

Because God called, and clear His voice,
And duty left no other choice;
Because 'twas love that led us in,
Men's wrongs to right, men's rights to win,
And sent our flag to fields afar
In war of love 'gainst love of war;
Because no selfish end we've sought;
Because for weak 'gainst strong we've wrought;
Because for world-wide peace we've fought,
Nor ever counted price or cost
In sacrifice or treasures lost.
But, with full might, for all that's right,
Against all wrong, we still shall fight—

We dare believe that glad new day
Will come for which we fight and pray,
And Angels long Amen to say
When for their crimes men make amends,
When hates all cease, and all war ends,
And those long foes shall all be friends.

For faith can never know defeat
That has in war of love its seat!

II.

The War of Love for Love of War

Because all law we hold in awe,
In war of love 'gainst breach of law
Our nation's stern duty saw—
For wars of love 'gainst wars of hate
In law's defense are just and great;
Because no man to man is true—
And this is law for nations, too—
Who dares the reign of law defy,
And laws of God and man defy;
Because Jehovah hath decreed
That earth's oppressed ones shall be freed,
And nations who obey His will
Have sworn His word quick to fulfill—

We dare believe the day has come
When lay-defying kings are dumb,
And anarchy, where'er it reigns,
Law-loving men shall bind in chains;
When men shall righteous laws obey
And love for law o'er earth have sway.

For faith can never know defeat
That has in love of law its seat!

WOMEN MUCH PRAISED BY QUEEN OF ENGLAND

LONDON, Dec. 11.—To a luncheon given by women who organized and directed the uniformed auxiliary services Queen Mary sent this message:

"I am proud of the work of the women war services and hope that the same splendid spirit will inspire your future activities."

Queen Alexandra's missive also expressed admiration. The room was decked with flowers sent by the Queen; Princess Alice, Countess of Athlone, presided.

Present among others were Lady Gosford, Mrs. Randall Davidson, Mrs. Rudyard Kipling, Lady Ernie, Lady Jekyll, Lady Bland-Sutton, Dowager Lady Jersey, and Miss F. Hermina Durham of the Ministry of Labor.

MAKES TINY ENGINE.

HILLSBORO, N. D., Dec. 11.—A young jeweler of Hillsboro has made a tiny engine, run by compressed air, which is only three-quarters of an inch long and weighs only two and one-quarter grains. The diameter of the cylinder bore is 28-1000 of an inch and the diameter of the flywheel is 9-64 of an inch.

See the pretty dolls in Mateer, Gemmel Drug Co. window—ten of them will be given away absolutely free—ask about them.

COAL NOW USED IN JEWELRY IN FRANCE

PARIS, Dec. 11.—Coal in France is so scarce that one may soon be accustomed to seeing the black "gem" in jewelry instead of valuable stones. Already some Parisiennes are wearing rings and pendants in which small pieces of coal replace rich stones in settings. The only preparation the new stone undergoes is dipping in some chemical which puts a gloss on it and at the same time prevents its staining. Such jewels come high, and there is every indication that the fashion will become popular until coal arrives here in greater quantities for proper uses.

PICTURE GAINS MAN FREEDOM AT TRIAL

FORT WAYNE, Ind., Dec. 11.—Photographs used for the first time in the history of the court obtained the freedom of S. F. Bowser, tank manufacturer, who was on trial on a charge of assault and battery on Mrs. Mary Lyman during a strike at his plant. The woman charged that when she merely touched the brim of his hat in asking him to salute a group of women, he deliberately struck her. The photographs showed that the woman had grabbed for the hat so vigorously that the manufacturer lost his balance and accidentally struck her in an effort to regain his poise and acquittal was obtained.

DOMESTIC USED GAS IS GIVEN PREFERENCE

Available For Home Use As Against Consumption In Industrial Plants

There is a difference between industrial and commercial consumers in the vernacular of the gas man, and this fact probably is responsible for a story going the rounds that the Southern Counties Gas Company proposes to divert Orange county natural gas from industries in Orange county to industrial plants at Long Beach.

The company has no such intentions, according to the statement today of Clyde H. Potter, publicity man for the company, while in the city. In the vernacular of the gas men, commercial consumers are restaurants and similar enterprises. Industrials are manufacturing plants.

It recently was decided to take a supply of the Orange county gas into the Long Beach district to supply commercial and domestic users. Potter is authority for the statement that should a gas shortage issue come to the point where service for domestic purposes in Orange county might be crippled by reason of service to Long Beach, the home people would be given first preference.

Domestic and commercial necessities take precedence over industrials, and domestic over commercial, according to decisions by the railroad commission.

"The people of Orange county need have no fear that we will take Orange county natural gas and distribute it in Long Beach or elsewhere to the detriment of local consumers," declared Potter. "That is not our purpose. As for cutting out domestic use and supplying gas to industrials, that is impossible, under rulings of the railroad commission."

Industrial consumers in Orange county will not be protected against Long Beach or other outside domestic consumers. With the big demand for natural gas for domestic use, perusal of this policy, it is believed, eventually will affect the operation of Orange county industries where natural gas is used. It practically will mean the elimination of cheap fuel for manufacturing plants in Orange county.

The revenue from domestic consumption is greater than from industrials, and this fact no doubt has great weight with the distributing company in taking the supply from industrials here to domestic use elsewhere.

Many Birthdays Celebrated

High school girls whose birthdays come in November, July and December celebrated in the gymnasium of the high school yesterday afternoon.

Dressing peanuts in red tissue paper was the first thing on the program and the dolls were used later to decorate the Christmas tree.

Many games were enjoyed during the afternoon, some of which were "cross questions" and silly answers and "who are you?"

The feature of the party was a Christmas tree loaded with presents, brought by the girls. Each girl received one of these. Delicious popcorn balls were then served.

Many of these parties, given by the Girls' League, have been enjoyed this year.

Concert by Boy Pianist

In presenting the 15-year-old boy pianist, Tomford Harris, for its December program next Monday evening at the First Methodist church, the Musical Association board feels confident that a recital replete with artistry as well as interest awaits the association members.

While distinctly not of the ordinary sensational type of prodigy, no one hearing this "Given genius"—as Cadman calls him, will feel that the executive and creative skill which he reveals is worthy of a lesser term than marvelous.

One who has been privileged to come into close touch with his mind comments with wonder upon his versatility and breadth of interest. Whether the subject of discussion be musical, literary, philosophical, religious or otherwise, this young man handles it in a manner that attests a most remarkable originality of thought as well as diligent attention to the splendid cultural influence with which he has been surrounded for earliest youth.

His father is Kenneth Harris, the writer whose contributions to the Saturday Evening Post and many other leading periodicals have won him great literary distinction. Many readers know him especially for his series of western stories known as the Bull-whacker stories. In the August 23rd issue of the Post is a most interesting autobiographical sketch of Mr. Harris, with illustrations in which Tom figures as a younger lad.

Tom has received all of his pianistic development from his mother, a woman of rare charm and ability who, owing to broken health, was obliged to discontinue a successful career as concert pianist.

The following program will be convincing to musicians of the lofty standard of art which this young pianist has set for himself:

Scarlatti
From Foreign Lands: Funny
Story: Catch Me If You Can;
Entertaining Child; Perfect Happiness; Important Event.....
From Scenes from Childhood (Schumann).

A Wandering Iceberg; Hungarian Valse Romantique..... MacDowell
Alceste..... Debussy
Reverie; Indiana; Pony..... Gluck-Saint Saens
XIII Hungarian Rhapsody..... Liszt
Romance..... Grieg
Seguidilla (Spanish Dance)..... Albeniz

Reception for Rev. Rollins

Friends of the Richland Avenue M. E. church are cordially invited to a reception to be given the pastor, Rev. Rollins, and wife, at the church, Friday evening, December 12, at 7:30 o'clock.

Ernest Crozier Phillips' reading, which he will give, will be an added attraction to the splendid program of music and speeches to be presented.

At the meeting of the Second Economics Section of the Ebel Society, held yesterday at the home of Mrs. Roy Hall, 420 South Birch street, there were about twenty present, each of whom responded to roll call with a recipe for the cooking of fish.

A one-o'clock luncheon was served on long tables beautifully adorned with lace doilies and pink roses.

During the course of the afternoon, Mrs. Dick Wilson gave an interesting paper on "Thrift" and a very substantial shower was given for the Mexican school. Yesterday's luncheon was given at a cost of only three dollars.

Torosa Rebekahs Initiate. Rebekahs from every state in the union and many from Canada were present as the guests of the Torosa Rebekah lodge last evening, numbering in all, about 200. Thirty-five Rebekahs were examined and introduced at one time.

The local Torosa Rebekahs put on the initiatory work, after which the election of officers took place, the following being those elected: N. G. Mrs. Maude Swarthout; V. G. Miss Alice Gould; Fin. Secy., Mrs. Victor Adams; Treas., Mrs. Sarah Uttley; Trus., Herbert Allen. The other officers will be appointed at the installation ceremonies.

Late in the evening cake and coffee were served in the dining room upon tables gay with bright red poinsettias.

Surprise Marriage in Oregon. When Miss Mary Joe Grubb, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. L. Grubb, left this fall for Eugene, Ore., to attend the Oregon University, members of the younger social circles of this city bade her a sorrowful adieu, little thinking that they would be welcoming her home as the bride of Hans Wagner, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Wagner, in three short months.

At a quiet ceremony in the court house at Eugene, Nov. 12, this popular couple plighted their troth and were pronounced man and wife by Rev. Hall of that city. Two sorority girls, Misses Pattie French of Portland and Maebell Ramont of San Francisco, also attending the Oregon University and members of the same sorority as the bride, were the only witnesses to the wedding.

Following the ceremony, the new Mrs. Wagner took her husband to the sorority house, after he had sent candy and flowers to all of the girls, which is the custom when a man becomes engaged to a sorority girl.

No doubt, Mr. Wagner sent a double amount of flowers, for they were also announcing their marriage as well.

In the course of the next few days, many social courtesies were shown the bride and groom, one of which was a reception given by the Tri Delta sorority, at which there were twenty-eight guests. The young couple then left for Portland, where they were entertained by Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Foster, old friends of the bride's family who had not seen her since she was ten years of age.

After spending a few days in Portland an enjoyable boat trip to San Francisco followed. They spent a few days in San Francisco then took the train and came south to make the announcement of their marriage to their parents, who were not expecting the wedding to take place for some little time.

Mr. and Mrs. Wagner are staying with the groom's parents at 1704 North Main street, until they can find a suitable home of their own.

"Get Together" Alumni Meeting

The Christian Endeavor Alumni Association of the First Baptist church held a most enjoyable "get-together" meeting last evening in the church parlors.

After a short business meeting Arthur Anderson took his hearers on an interesting trip into the interior of Siberia, describing the country and the things he saw while making the trip on a Red Cross train.

Rev. J. A. Stevenson then gave some personal and entertaining sketches of France, Belgium and Germany.

A pleasant feature of the evening was a four-piece orchestra consisting of Messrs. Ramsey, Carrillo, Cozad and Miss Warner which played a number of selections. During the social hour which closed the evening, fruitade and wafers were served.

Regulation Dress

In view of the fact that all High school girls are required to wear a white middie and dark blue or black wool skirt for mass drill, the Girl's League of the Santa Ana High School voted to adopt this costume as a regulation dress. Beginning after Christmas this dress will be worn all day every day except Thursday (assembly day) and may be worn on Thursday if one desires.

Any style of white cotton middies, regardless of the trimmings, may be worn the rest of the year (January to June, 1920). The Girl's League also voted to adopt an all white Lawson middie with long sleeves, three rows of white braid on the collar, and no lace in front as the regulation middie to be worn exclusively next year.

The dark blue or black plaid skirt, preferably hung from the shoulders, will be wide enough to wear during gymnasium drills.

A dark blue or black tie and a red tie of any style are recommended.

The following resolution was passed by the Santa Ana Board of Education:

"The Board of Education heartily endorses the regulation dress recently adopted by the Girl's League of Santa Ana High School and recommends its adoption by all high school girls after Christmas vacation."

Pleasant Evening Entertainment

Twenty-six members of the Estelita Daniels Chapter of the Westminster Guild, First Presbyterian church, met last evening at the home of Misses Bertha and Ruth Armstrong on North Broadway.

The evening passed quickly with lively conversation. Christmas needlework, and vocal and instrumental music by Misses Meta Daniel, Ruth Frothingham and Ruth Armstrong.

Refreshments of ice cream, cakes and coffee were served, the decorative color scheme being pink.

Those present beside the hostesses, the patroness, Mrs. W. A. Anderson, and Mrs. J. A. Stevenson, a guest of the Guild, were Misses Irma Curry, Bessie Lewis, Nancy Elder, Christine Schenk, Hattie Whidden, Leslie Smith, Meta Daniel, Ruth Frothingham, Robbie Jones, Greenfield, Eugenia Henry, Carrie Files, Jeffie Files, Mary Gail, Alice Gail, Mary Wood, Effie Douglas, Edith Ward, Lena Ott, Mayme Brightwell, Suzanne Claycomb, Thirza Marrs and Vanche Plumb.

Indiana People Meet

About fifty Hoosiers and their friends, some of them seeing California for the first time, were present yesterday at the Indiana meeting held in G. A. R. hall, Santa Ana.

A splendid lunch was discussed, over which much jollity prevailed, showing by the various toothsome "dishes" displayed that the Hoosier housewives have not lost their reputations as cooks.

The afternoon meeting was full of interesting topics, first in order being the reading of minutes of last year.

The report of the treasurer, Mit Phillips, was most satisfying, giving a balance of 16 cents in the treasury, which had more than doubled during the present year because this careful official had placed it in a savings bank on term deposit. So great was the gratitude of the association that Mr. Phillips was unanimously chosen treasurer for 1920.

WITHOUT BONDS! and a collection was taken to defray necessary expenses and placed in his hands!

A large delegation was present from Whittier and were sufficiently at home to invite the next association meeting to Whittier, and the invitation was unanimously accepted.

Among those who responded to the program were Dr. Freeman of Fullerton, who spoke on "The Literature of Indiana," also "Indiana as a Medical Center," and gave two beautiful selections from Riley, the "Hoosier poet." Mrs. Mit Phillips gave "Indiana as an Educational Center." Mr. Mosbaugh, "Progress of Road Building." Mr. and Mrs. Mosbaugh have recently returned from Indiana and are capable of talking on this subject. Mr. Will Starbuck talked on "Indiana as a Political Center," and Mrs. E. C. Horton gave a reading from one of Indiana's poets, Frances Marion Van Pelt. The fact was made prominent that Indiana never had and never will take a "back seat" for any other state, having furnished many of the best among the prominent men and women in every walk of life. Mrs. Phillips pleased the audience with old-time songs, and responded to numerous encores. The guests of the association expressed their pleasure at being present and hoped to return next year, among them being Rev. Mrs. Cox of Whittier, and Rev. McKee of Fullerton, a Y. M. C. A. worker recently returned from France.

Closing number on the program was "Summarized Thoughts of the Afternoon's Discussions, as an Educational Force for the Future Hoosier." This address was received with applause.

On motion, the officers of last year were re-elected with the exception of secretary. Will Starbuck of Fullerton was elected secretary. The meeting adjourned by the audience singing one verse of "God Be With You Till We Meet Again." Mrs. Mit Phillips, chairman of music, presiding at the piano.

The officers this year are: President, Mrs. I. D. Mills; vice-president, Alva Starbuck of Whittier; treasurer, Mit Phillips; secretary, Will Starbuck of Fullerton.

Athena Have Christmas Program. An Athena meeting was held yesterday afternoon in music of the Poly High school.

A program, celebrating Christmas and the birthday of Kipling, combined, was enjoyed after the regular business had been attended to.

Kipling's "If" was recited by Miss Alice Strong and "If For Girls," apologies to Kipling, by Miss Grace Dickey. Miss Dorothy Garstang gave a reading entitled "The Elephant's Child."

The Christmas part of the program was a Christmas song, "Little Town of Bethlehem," sung by a quartet of girls and four girls gave a Christmas Tree Dance, this concluding the entertainment.

As the President, Miss Nellie Larson, was unable to be present, the meeting was presided over by Miss Alice Wassler.

DUSTER PAPERS ARE SERVED ON RANCHER

Man Refused to Give Possession of Land, Is Alleged In Complaint

Sheriff C. E. Jackson today was scheduled to serve upon Fred B. Gohata, who lives southwest of Hansen station, a writ of possession issued by Superior Judge West in connection with an action for restitution of real property brought against Gohata by W. W. Connell.

It was alleged in the complaint that on December 18, of last year, Lizzie E. Vaughan, who has since deeded the property in question, consisting of twenty acres, to the plaintiff, leased the land to Gohata. The lease was to expire on December 31, 1919, it was set forth. The consideration was $600, it was claimed.

On June 1, last, a payment of $250 was alleged to have become due on the lease. The plaintiff alleged he served a written notice upon Gohata, demanding either the payment of the amount alleged to be due, or the restitution of the property. The defendant was declared to have refused this demand, and the action was begun.

Damages of $100 were claimed to have been sustained as a result of Gohata's alleged unlawful possession of the land.

Battle Over Tot Is Ended When Man, Ex-Wife Make Pact

THROUGH a stipulation and dismissal entered today by attorneys in the case, litigation involving the daughter, not yet three years old, of Everett A. Stockton, and Mrs. Ruth M. Roper, of Los Angeles, Stockton's former wife, was brought to an end.

Mrs. Roper, while living in Santa Ana, was the driver of a stage running between this city and Huntington Beach. Following the trial of a divorce action brought by Stockton two years ago, the wife was awarded the custody of the child.

In October, of this year, Stockton, alleging that Mrs. Roper was cruel to the little girl, filed a petition asking the court for an order awarding him her custody. A hearing in these proceedings was to have been held tomorrow. In the paper entered today it was recited that Stockton and Mrs. Roper had reached an agreement with reference to the child.

Morris A. Cain was Stockton's attorney, while Eden & Koepsel were attorneys for Mrs. Roper.

EVIDENCE IN CHECK CASE BEFORE JURY

Roy Wise Tried on Charge of Uttering Fictitious Paper For $24

Charged with uttering a fictitious check for $24, Roy Wise today was on trial before a jury in the court of Superior Judge Williams.

W. J. Wickersheim, the complaining witness, on the stand, testified that Wise came into his store at Fullerton, offered the check, and Wickersheim cashed it for him, "as any business man would."

Two days later the check, marked no funds, was returned to Wickersheim, the witness said.

Leonard Evans of Anaheim was attorney for Wise. Deputy District Attorney A. P. Nelson appeared for the state.

It was alleged that the name, "J. C. White," was signed to the check and that it was endorsed with the name, "Roy Wise."

Those on the jury were George P. Campbell, L. R. Whitney, A. L. Whitman, Waldo L. Leiby, Henry Loptien, Nathaniel Carmichael, D. D. Fields, William J. Althaus, John Hanson, Joel Proctor, H. B. Wiseman and W. H. Hilyard.

MAN NEARLY DROWNED IN ENGINE TENDER

OSAWATOMIE, Kans., Dec. 11.—From Lane to Osawatomie is not a long distance if one is riding in a Pullman, but the same trip in the waters of the locomotive tender is a life and death adventure.

Jim Jackson, a Kansas City tramp, had that experience in the heart of an engine tender while a local freight was en route from Lane to Osawatomie. He was discovered by the engineer of the locomotive.

"It happened this way," Jackson explained at the yard office here when he was fished out of the big tank. "I climbed aboard the engine tender and squatted low. As we turned a curve I saw the head end brakeman coming over the cars. I thought I could dodge him and drop through the water-hole into the tender. It was almost as big as a Y. M. C. A. swimming pool. The water was just up to my chin and I had to swim to escape the slob-slosh waves. When I had about concluded to give up, the engineer heard me calling for help and saved me."

The railroad men thought Jackson's experience was ample punishment and gave him a place in the yard office near the stove and later a substantial supper.

PAID BIG FOR SHARE, HE IS KEEPING BEARD

CONNELLSVILLE, Pa., Dec. 11.—Col. James J. Barnhart wears a long, flowing beard, and there's a reason. He says that he was a Colonel in the Civil War when he received his last shave. It was during Sherman's march to the sea. A Georgia barber charged him $4,000 in Confederate money for the shave and he swore he never again would allow a razor to touch his cheek. He kept his word.

A GOOD FRIEND

A good friend stands by you when in need. Santa Ana people tell how Doan's Kidney Pills have stood the test. P. G. Etchison, retired merchant of 826 Garfield street, endorsed Doan's twelve years ago and again confirms the story. Could you ask for more convincing testimony?

"For a number of years I was troubled off and on with a dull, heavy pain in the small of my back," says Mr. Etchison. "If I stooped over or remained in a bent position long, I was sure to suffer worse. Reading about Doan's Kidney Pills and believing that this trouble arose from weakened conditions of my kidneys, I decided to try them. Doan's promptly and thoroughly cured me and I have not felt a trace of the aching or pain in my back since. I am certainly glad to say a good word for Doan's Kidney Pills and I surely consider them a great remedy." (Statement given March 7, 1907.)

On October 24, 1919, Mr. Etchison said: "My faith in Doan's Kidney Pills is as strong as ever. I seldom need a kidney remedy now, but keep Doan's on hand in case I do have a slight attack. I know I can depend on them for relief."

LUCKY IF REACH G. A. R. POST IS FIRM IN STAND FOR AMERICA

Many Will Be Minus Crown When Attain Pearly Gates, Declares Evangelist

"Some people who sing, 'Will there be any stars in my crown?' will finally consider themselves mighty fortunate if they get into heaven baldheaded, with neither stars nor crown," declared Dave Hill, the lumberjack evangelist, to a crowded house last night at Zion Evangelical church.

"Some folk who now sing lustily 'I can read my title clear to mansions in the sky' may on Judgment Day thank Infinite Mercy if they are permitted to camp on the Commons of Canaan."

The evangelist had for his theme last night, "The Final Judgment," and he delivered such an unctuous and penetrating sermon as ever fell on the ears of a Santa Ana audience. The audience was spellbound and many were moved to tears. When the call was given many rushed to the altar and fell on their knees crying to God for mercy.

"No doubt at all, Dave Hill is a prophet of God as surely as ever the prophets of old were to Israel, or John the Baptist, John Wesley or Jacob Albright were to people in their generation," declared a Hill admirer this morning. "Such a positive preaching of the truth is an effectual cure of the radicalism, Bolshevism and social unrest of the day. Would that thousands in our city might hear him instead of hundreds."

Interest is increasing and the effects of the meeting are deepening. Sunday afternoon at 2:30 the evangelist will tell the story of his life. It will be a meeting for men only, boys under fourteen years of age not being admitted.

Tonight's subject will be, "Soul Rest."

Following are excerpts from the sermon of last night: "The Bible says that every man shall give an account of himself to God on the Judgment Day. Well, there will sure be something stirring on that day, and that is one thing that every man will tell the unvarnished truth."

"On the Judgment Day, some fellows will wish they had carried back that thing they borrowed, when folks were not looking at them, and those sharp business tricks that you worked to get a few dollars may weigh more than your soul when you stand in the judgment."

"A dishonest man can never be happy in time or eternity without confession and restoration."

"Some Christians ought to be tagged, like they do a car of fruit, that they ship East, marked, 'Perishable, Don't Switch.'"

"Some people never do anything to build up the Kingdom of God, but they will run with the ungodly sinners to their amusements and entertainments and stay away from prayer meeting, then go to church on Sunday morning and sit in the pew and sing, 'Will There Be Any Stars in My Crown?' and about their mansion in the skies. They will be mighty lucky if they get in baldheaded without a crown, or get a chance to camp on the commons."

"They are wonders"—that's what everybody who's tried them says of "Register" classified liners.

MRS. GRUTTSCHMITT TO SUE FOR HER ARREST

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 11.—Mrs. Violeta Potter Kruttschnitt, former wife of Theo. Kruttschnitt, son of the head of the Southern Pacific company, today characterized as "ridiculous" charges on which she was arrested in her rooms in the Palace Hotel. Thomas B. O'Connor, retained by her as counsel, intimated suits for damages in connection with her detention may be filed later.

Mrs. Kruttschnitt spent ten hours in a "community cell" in the city prison before bail was forthcoming. She is accused of presenting a false affidavit of loss after her Mill Valley home had burned down October 20th.

NOT TOO LATE TO SOW CALIFORNIA POPPIES

There is ample room for more surprise nooks and corners as well as miles and miles of roadsides that may be beautiful with blossoms of poppies, by scattering seeds carelessly on top of the ground or in the dead grass. LIVE OWL AMONG DEAD ONES SURPRISES MAN

FREMONT, Mich., Dec. 11.—Carl F. Steinhilber, contractor, stood in the Pastime Recreation restaurant and rubbed his eyes. "Am I seeing things?" he exclaimed. He was looking at a collection of stuffed birds in the window when an owl slowly winked one of his big eyes at him. "Hoo," said the owl and Steinhilber bolted through the door. A workman had placed a live owl in the collection.

Prosperity Smiles on City Social Service Work Tells

ONE of the most reliable barometers to a city's prosperity is its charitable institutions. If times are hard and work scarce, applications for aid multiply. When times are good, the number who ask for and are given aid drops to a minimum.

Measured by those standards, Santa Ana right now is more prosperous than Santa Ana has been in many a day.

"There is work for everyone who can and will work," declared Mrs. Carrie N. Leebick, secretary of the Social Service League, which has its offices at 115 East Third street, "and aid is not given to anyone who can work and won't work."

Comparing conditions today with what they were a year ago, Mrs. Leebick said that those people who are frequently close to the borderland of needing public aid have more money these days than they have had at any time since she became secretary for the organized charities of this city.

"The Mexicans are making money," said she. "We have very little call from them. In spite of high costs of living, the Mexicans are getting along very well these days. Of course, the fact that the whole country is dry has helped in a good many families."

"The work of conducting charity distribution is always far easier when there is plenty of work. Our duties in the Social Service League these days is largely that of a free employment bureau. I have no difficulty at all in placing men and women in positions. The demand for maids is greater than the supply."

"Whenever application is made for aid, the first thing I do is to go to the home and find out for myself just who and how many in that family are fit to work. If there is any person in the family who can work and is not working, I offer to get a place for that person. I keep in touch with the worker, and if he or she is unable to make enough to keep the family we can supplement with aid. If a person can work and will not work, aid is refused. Sometimes a bill of groceries is sent in to help the family get on its feet. Our aim is to help the family to help themselves. This is real constructive charity."

"These days, however, the Social Service League is receiving few calls for assistance. "Newcomers may have trouble in getting positions. The number of people applying to me for workers is greater than the number applying for work. Right now I have a number of positions for which I have no workers."

S. MAIN SOON WILL HAVE FIRST BRICK

South Main street is rapidly jumping into a business district and the first business brick structure to lead the way in this class of improvements on the street south of First will be under way in the next thirty or sixty days if the plans of L. G. Swales do not go awry. It will be a two story modern brick building.

Papers today are passing between Chas. L. Cotant and L. G. Swales by which the latter becomes the possessor of the fifty foot lot immediately to the south of the Olivari vulcanizing shop and instructions have already been given Architect Kays to proceed with the preparation of plans for a modern two story brick building. The time when construction work will commence will depend entirely upon the condition of materials and when workmen will be available. Swales is anxious to get the construction under way at the earliest possible moment, and that time might be three weeks or it might be two months.

Swales is the Samson Tractor agent here and the new building will be occupied by him with his agency, in addition to which he will handle high grade second hand cars. The building will be arranged especially for this purpose, his intention being to make fine displays of both tractors and used automobiles.

The upper story probably will be used as an automobile paint shop, plans for this having not yet been fully developed by Swales.

FINE HOME WILL BE ERECTED ON RANCH

A fine residence on a commanding site on the Lemon Heights ranch of Dr. J. N. Bartholomew will result from the sale this week of his residence at 820 Spurgeon street to J. E. Leibig, of the firm of Carden & Leibig. Leibig will occupy the residence, which is eight rooms.

Dr. Bartholomew has seventy acres of oranges and lemons at Lemon Heights and it has been his plan for some time to erect a fine home on one of the pretty hill sites on his ranch just as soon as he disposed of his city residence.

Attractive yards will feature the new home location, the physician contemplating the expenditure of about $20,000 in residence and yard improvements. Dr. Bartholomew will continue his office in the city when he moves to his ranch.

MAN 80 SAYS HEALTH IS HELPED BY APPLES

SALINA, Kan., Dec. 11.—Dan B. Day, Lincoln, passed his eightieth birthday the other day and is more vigorous and active than most men of fifty. Last summer he cultivated an extensive garden, cared for a large flock of chickens and gave needy neighbors a hand every day or two.

This fall he spent a number of days in the Woody apple orchard near Lincoln, and a part of his salary consisted of fifteen bushels of apples of the choicest varieties in the orchard.

Day declares that his vigorous health is due to the fact that he eats from three to five apples every evening before going to bed, and almost every day he eats plenty of fruit of all kinds.

MONDAY OF NEXT WEEK FINAL DAY ON TAXES

Payments can be made at the internal revenue collector's branch office in the court house on Monday, or checks or money can be sent direct to John P. Carter, collector, at Los Angeles.

Statements of the amount due are supposed to be in the hands of all persons who have filed income tax statements.

MADISONVILLE, Ky., Dec. 11.—After terrorizing the inhabitants of Antion country for many months, the timber wolf that has killed sheep, calves and dogs was killed by Isaiah Burden, one morning recently on "The Point" near Pink Nall's farm. The animal was brought here and exhibited at the Garrick theater. It weighed about 75 pounds.

IRVINE WALNUT CROP FOR YEAR SHOWS TOTAL 865 TONS

Association Has Distinction, Every Acre In Its Area Signed Up

Checks, settling with all its growers for the season's business, have been sent out by the Irvine Walnut association. "An exceptional record was shown for the year, this season's receipts totaling 865 tons, as against 530 tons received last year. The increase in tonnage was 33.3 per cent."

The Irvine association has the distinction of having within the association every acre of walnuts grown within the area that the association packing house serves. There is no dispute with the independent growers in that section, for the reason that there are no independent growers.

The association produced a high quality product, as shown by the items of the association production for the year, as follows:

No. 1 nuts, 1,033,600 pounds; No. 2 nuts, 117,204 pounds; Jumbos, 12,000 pounds; diamond buds, 369,555 pounds; golden state, 42,300 pounds; culls, 107,037 pounds. With the suction apparatus, 19,795 pounds of blanks—that is, shells with no meats in them—were sucked up. Dirt removed in the packing house reached a total of 1,867 pounds. The sacks used weighed 29,145 pounds, the sacks weighing one pound apiece.

The Irvine association started its season's run on October 8 and finished on November 15.

In the settlement, the growers received twenty-nine cents per pound for No. 1 nuts, twenty-four cents for No. 2s, and 31.25 cents for jumbos and diamond buds. In addition to making these payments out of the year's receipts, the growers' association paid $14,000 upon the cost of the packing house. That was the last payment, the packing house being paid for in two years. In addition to $14,000 paid on the packing house, other expenses taken out of this year's receipts included a mangle and some office equipment.

The association shipped forty-five carloads of nuts. The value of the largest car was $18,865.50.

The officers of the association are: A. J. McFadden, president; F. C. Slater, secretary; Harold Hobard, manager; James Irvine, W. G. Mitchell, Sherman Stevens, C. E. Ut and A. J. McFadden, directors.

BAR ALIEN FISHERMEN IS URGED IN ALASKA

JUNEAU, Alaska, Dec. 11.—Recommendations that aliens be barred from fishing in Alaskan waters were made by a grand jury here recently. "To better conserve the fisheries of Alaska we are convinced after an investigation of the subject that there should be an abatement of the extensive fishing now carried on by aliens," the report of the grand jury said. "To this end we recommend, as a corrective measure, the enactment of a law requiring a full citizenship of those engaging in the commercial taking of fish in Alaskan waters."

ROHRS EXTENDS HOLDINGS OF FOURTH ST. PROPERTY

Prosperous Farmer Buys the Neill Hall Block on East Fourth

Another piece of business property on East Fourth street changed hands this week when Fred Rohrs, farmer, added to his Fourth street holdings by purchasing the property of which Neill's hall is a part. G. B. Darnell was the agent in the transaction. The consideration, it is reported, was approximately $26,000 cash.

The frontage on Fourth street is fifty feet and composes the rooms occupied by Chas. Mitchell's paint and paper store and Preston's second-hand furniture store on the ground floor and Neill's hall in the second story. The purchase was made from W. F. Lutz and Mrs. A. R. Hervey.

Rohrs also is the owner of the business property at the corner of Sycamore and Fourth streets, now occupied by the Miles shoe store and the Lutz tailoring shop. Chas. Spicer has recently leased this corner and on the first of June next, work of demolishing the present buildings will be commenced and a modern store structure will be erected for occupancy by Spicer's dry goods store.

The business property on East Fourth street, just purchased by Rohrs, was erected long years ago by the late Henry Neill, when the room owned and occupied by Hill & Son and the building to the east of this, bought last week by the firm from C. J. Billings, were also put up, the owners co-operating in the improvement. At the time of their construction, the buildings were considered high class improvements and important additions to the business district in the east end.

It is good property today. It is not known whether the new owner contemplates improvements or alterations.

LUTZ BUYS SUMMER HOME AT E. NEWPORT

NEWPORT BEACH, Dec. 11.—Geo. P. Wilson has bought the P. L. Sherman place at East Newport for $3,000. Mr. Wilson was obliged to get a new place to lease, as he recently sold his home on the bay front, formerly owned by J. L. Walker, to W. F. Lutz of Santa Ana, for $5,500. Mr. Wilson bought the place three months ago for $4,000. This is a good indication of the rapid advance in beach residence property.

O. H. Burke of Tustin has purchased the Davis cottage on 36th street, between the Ocean Front and Coast boulevard, and will remodel the house. He also expects to move the garage onto the rear of the lot. Max Reichenbach is remodeling the house on his tract of land, which he recently purchased, on Newport Heights. The carpenter work is being done by Fred Beck and J. H. McFadden.

Paul E. Kressly, city engineer, has sold his house Central avenue to Capt. Sherman and has moved into a house on the Bay Front at East Newport.

INSPECTORS TESTING BY 8-TO-1 STANDARD

San Bernardino Sun: County and federal authorities are making the eight to one test in orchards in various parts of the county.

The fruit is coloring up rapidly, and the acid test is not necessary where the fruit is three-fourths colored.

About a dozen cars of navelis will be shipped from this county, most of them from Redlands, for the Christmas holiday market in the East, estimates John P. Coy, county horticultural commissioner.

Growers in the lawlands, where there is more possibility of frost damage than in the highlands, desire to ship as early as possible, but the vast majority of growers prefer to wait until the fruit is properly ripened.

SCHOOL CHILDREN IN FRANCE SHOW UNREST

PARIS, Dec. 11.—French school children are manifesting symptoms of the unrest that permeates all classes at the moment. The youngsters have not threatened to strike yet, but they have made known the causes of their dissatisfaction. "Likewise many older persons, they expected a greater degree of liberty after the war—that is, they want a more time to play. They declare their teachers should be less austere, more companionable, even 'sporty.' They object to the rigor of the routine of study."

Christmas Party Gowns Are Being Rushed to Completion

Lovely Girl and Frock Are Hard to Resist Under the Mistletoe

NEW YORK, Dec. 11.—A lovely girl in a lovely frock under the mistletoe bough—well, that is a combination few young men will be able to resist and some of the girls are looking forward to this. They are deciding on what gowns they will wear at the Christmas party and having them rushed to completion.

One of the new and attractive frocks that is much favored this season is made of flesh colored georgette crepe. It is a most dainty gown and one of its main attractions is the full accordion pleated skirt. It has a deep square neck and is trimmed with heavy cream lace.

BERLIN EATING GOOD FOOD AT HIGH PRICES

BERLIN, Dec. 11.—Shelves, counters and showcases of the delicatessen stores are filled once more with everything the Berliners love to eat—no longer "ersatz" or substitutes. They must pay tremendous prices, but they crowd the shops.

The World correspondent bucked the line into Kemponski's delicatessen "palace" on the Friedrichstrasse to day. Customers were almost fighting for the privilege of parting with $2.60 for a pound of goose; 50 cents for a stuffed tomato; $3.80 for a pound of Santos coffee; $2.75 for a pound of vegetable salad; $3.50 for a pound of cocoa; $4.25 for a pound of herring salad; $3.75 for a jar of chicken; $4.35 for a small jar of game pate, and $2.60 for a pound of smoked salmon.

Not a man or woman faltered nor haggled. The Berliners' nerve is as strong as their appetite.

WOMAN POSES AS MAN FOR THIRTEEN YEARS

MILWAUKEE, Wis., Dec. 11.—Cora Anderson, who for thirteen years lived here as a man, received a dismissal of her vagrancy case from Judge Page. Cora has been on probation for ninety days following a charge of a man that she and another woman had stolen $40 from him. Cora, married this time as a woman, has been living at 709 State street. While masquerading as Ralph Kerwino for thirteen years she was successfully the "husband" of two women.

MOORE AND TAYLOR WILL GIVE $80,000 FOR COUNTY RANCH

A transaction involving $80,000 is in progress this week in the sale of the Dawley 160 acres of land in the west part of the county to Moore and Taylor, and indicates continued activity in lands in that section. It is beet and bean land and is said to be a body of fine soil.

Another deal in unimproved land that is of considerable importance was consummated this week when N. E. Wray, of North Broadway, purchased 35 acres of beet and bean land from Cood Adams at a consideration said to be between $600 and $700 an acre. It is located on McClay street opposite the farm of Frank Thomas Wray, a farmer owning a valuable piece of property on Broadway north of Santa Clara avenue. This deal was handled by Carden and Leibig.

WILL BUILD SANITARIUM

OLIVE, Dec. 11.—John Heithusen is building an addition to his house. The Heithusens are also going to build a twelve-room sanitarium next month. This sanitarium will be built west of their residence.

WILL BUILD BIG JAM FACTORY CORNER OF D AND FRUIT

City's Newest Industrial Project Is Now Taking Definite Shape

With the announcement that a site at the corner of Fruit and D streets had been selected by the Santa Ana Preserving Company, plans in connection with the city's newest industrial project today were taking definite shape.

Information pertaining to the selection of the site was made public by Roscoe Wilson, manager of the concern, with offices in the Spurgeon building.

Following a conference with L. B. Valla, industrial agent of the Southern Pacific, Wilson announced, late yesterday afternoon, that the railway's engineering office in Los Angeles had given its approval of the site selected and would recommend that the San Francisco office also give its sanction.

The building, which will house the machinery of the Santa Ana Preserving Company, will cost approximately $4000 and construction work will be started shortly, according to Wilson.

A spur track leading to the site will have to be built from the Southern Pacific's main line. The property is located across the street, and south of the packing plant of Guggenheimer and Company.

The directors of the Santa Ana Preserving company are Wilson and his wife, Grace F. Wilson and Bruce Moore, of Fullerton. The company is incorporated at $25,000.

Operations will begin as soon as the plant is built. The company plans to turn into jam, fruit pulp which is available in considerable quantities at various canneries in Southern California, according to Wilson.

A line of modern machinery to handle a general canning business in addition to jams will be installed in time to handle fruit grown next season, Wilson said.

Wilson, who has lived in this city for two years, was organizer and formerly manager of the California Products Company, at Orange.

ANAHEIM PIONEER WOMAN DIES IN L. A.

ANAHEIM, Dec. 11.—News of the death of Mrs. Rose Dickel, wife of H. A. Dickel, which occurred Monday evening came as a distinct shock to her many friends in this city and throughout Southern California.

During the influenza epidemic last year she was a victim of that disease but apparently recovered. However, her strength never returned and after a time serious complications arose from which she was never able to rally. For some time past she has been staying with her sister, Mrs. J. H. Bullard in Los Angeles in order to be under the personal care of Dr. Bullard. Some weeks ago she was removed to the Lamanda Park sanitarium, where where she died last yesterday afternoon.

Mrs. Dickel was the daughter of the late Theo. Schmidt, who was one of the original colony of pioneers who founded the Mother-Colony in 1857. With the exception of a few years spent abroad to finish her education, her entire life has been spent in this community, and a legion of friends will mourn her passing. Her mother, Mrs. C. Langenberger, died several years ago.

Aside from the husband, three sons, Theodore, Arnold and Percy, and two sisters, Mrs. J. H. Bullard and Mrs. E. R. Turck survive her.

Librarian Gives List Of Books by Which Gift for Child May Be Suggested

WITH Christmas close at hand, many questions of the what-to-buy variety come to the minds of people.

Nobody could answer all of those questions, for answers must be made to fit the person, but Miss Jeannette McFadden, city librarian, has answered the question that a lot of people have asked. That question might be put thus:

"What book shall I buy for my boy or girl who is in the fourth, fifth or sixth grade?"

Miss McFadden has answered the question by giving a list of books that she has found most popular and advisable for children in those grades. That list, including the name of each author, the title of the book and a statement concerning the book, as given by Miss McFadden follows:

Andersen, Hans Christian—"Nightingale" and other stories.

Arabian night's entertainments; based on a translation from the Arabic by E. W. Lane, edited for young people by F. J. Olcott. This is probably the best edition for a child's library. These tales supply the oriental which are not found in other fairy tales.

Carroll, Lewis—"Alice's Adventures in Wonderland." The most delightful of all nonsense books and one that has already become a classic. "Through the Looking Glass." More adventures of Alice in Wonderland.

DeFoe, Daniel—"Life of Robinson Crusoe." The greatest story of an adventure ever written. Illustrate how much one can do unaided.

Hawthorne, Nathaniel—"Wonder Book" and "Tanglewood Tales."

Illad—"For Boys and Girls," told by A. J. Church.

Irving, Washington—"Legends of the Alhambra." Legends, traditions and fairy tales which time has woven around the ruins of the beautiful Moorish Palace.

Lamb, Charles—"Tales from Shakespeare." These tales have taken their place as an English classic. They never have been superseded, nor are they likely to be.

Lucas—"Another Book of Verse for Children." Admirable selections chosen partly with view to reading aloud, a large proportion not being found among other children's anthologies.

MacDonald, George—"At the Back of the North Wind." An unusually beautiful story in which is told the affection of a dreamy little boy for the north wind. "Princess and the Goblin." How the princess and the Curdie overcame the wicked goblins of the mountain. "Princess and the Curdie." Sequel to "The Princess and the Goblin."

Odyssey for Boys and Girls, told by A. J. Church.

Palgrave, Frances T.—"Children's Treasury of English Song." This is the best collection that has yet been made for children. "Golden Treasury." Every older boy or girl should be familiar with this classic collection of English sonnets, lyrics and songs.

Pyle, Howard—"Merry Adventures of Robin Hood." One of the best renditions of the tale.

Stevenson, Robert Louis—"Child's Garden of Verse." Poems which, by their fanciful humor and simple rhythm appeal to children. "Treasure Island." Probably the best story of piracy and concealed treasures ever written for children.

Wyss, Johann D.—"Swiss Family Robinson." Not so good a story as Robinson Crusoe, but often liked better by children, probably because children occupy a prominent place in the story.

Miscellaneous Books

Adams, J. H.—"Harper's Electricity for Boys." Clear directions for manufacturing every-day electrical appliances with home-made apparatus at small cost.

Alcott, L. M.—"Little Women." One of the best stories for girls ever written. "Little Men." Sequel to "Little Women."

Alden, W. L.—"Cruise of the Canoe Club." "Cruise of the Ghost." "Moral Pirates." Exciting adventures of four New York boys on the Hudson in a row boat.

Aldrich, T. B.—"Story of a Bad Boy." The author's own boy-life in a New England town.

Bailey, C. S.—"Boys' Make at Home Things." Directions for making toys and useful articles out of simple and inexpensive materials.

Baker, R. S.—"Boys' Book of Inventions." Concise, untechnical descriptions of boats, liquid air, wireless telegraphy, automobiles, tailless kites, etc. "Boys' Second Book of Inventions."

Barrie, J. M.—"Peter and Wendy." Adventures of Peter Pan and his wife Wendy with lost boys, pirates and the fairy, Tinker Bell. "Peter Pan" retold by F. O. Perkins. "Peter Pan in Kensington Gardens." Peter Pan, a little boy who never grows up, lives on an island in the serpentine and plays with fairies in the garden every night after lock-out time.

Baylor, Frances C.—"Juan and Juanita." The adventure of a brother and sister lost on the Texas plain.

Beard, D. C.—"American Boys' Handy Book." Directions for making kites, boats and all kinds of games and toys.

Bond, A. R.—"Scientific American Boy." "Scientific American Boy at School." Describes and illustrates many interesting things that boys can make and do.

Burnett, F. H.—"Little Lord Fauntleroy." Teaches friendliness to all sorts and conditions of men.

Carpenter, K. E.—"Story of Joan of Arc." for boys and girls.

Carter, M. H.—"About Animals," retold from St. Nicholas. "Bear Stories," retold from St. Nicholas. "Stories of Brave Dogs," retold from St. Nicholas.

Dodge, Mary M.—"Hans Brinker." A story of Dutch life, showing how perseverance brings reward.

DuChailu, Paul B.—"Stories of the Gorilla Country." Adventures among wild men and beasts on the western coast of Africa. "World of the Great Forest." How animals, birds, reptiles and insects talk, think, work and live.

Duncan, Norman—"Adventures of Billy Topsail." "Billy Topsail and Company." "Billy Topsail."

London, Jack—"Call of the Wild." Dog story of the Klondyke.

Little Cousin Series—"Child Life in Many Countries," treated in story form.

MacLeod, May—"Book of King Arthur and His Noble Knights." The best version for young children.

Materlinck, Mrs. Maurice—"The Children's Blue Bird." For boys and girls of all ages.

STEAL $12,000 GEMS FROM WEALTHY WIDOW

LOS ANGELES, Cal., Dec. 11.—Police and private detectives have started searching for $12,000 worth of jewels which were stolen from the hotel room of Mrs. Wiley R. Reynolds, wealthy widow of a Jackson, Michigan, banker. She reported the loss to the police.

The jewelry includes a valuable diamond and turquoise necklace, diamond and emerald pin, a gold chain strung with pearls, a valuable emerald and diamond ring and other articles.

MAY CHARGE FOR EXTRA HEAVY PICKUPS

Fee For Hauling Away Large Accumulations May Be Made By City

Street Superintendent W. W. Hoy and Sanitary Inspector W. W. Chandler are not without their troubles since they have become the responsible heads of the garbage and trash collecting department of the city. Their problem is how best to deal with certain difficult features arising in their departments and at the same time be just to all taxpayers.

Where the responsibilities of the city commence and end with reference to hauling away tin cans and back yard accumulations is the problem that concerns Chandler and where the same responsibility commences and ends with reference to hauling tree trimmings is a question that concerns Hoy.

The department heads admit the city's responsibility for removal of normal accumulations, but they do not do that in the case where a property owner clears his premises of old cans and accumulations of months or a year and dumps them on the street or sidewalk for the city equipment to pick up.

A few tree trimmings or a few cans here and there are all right, but when it comes to a property owner cutting down a tree and dumping the trimmings out in the street that will make one or two wagon loads—why that is another story.

The same with cans and trash.

The proposition of making a small charge for hauling the extra accumulations has been up for discussion in council meetings at different times, and since the city has in an official capacity entered the realm of garbage and trash collectors, the question again is bobbing up for consideration.

The street superintendent takes the position that it is eminently unfair to a large percentage of taxpayers for one property owner to produce an over amount of trimmings or trash that will make a full load and have it hauled away by the city without cost to him. The sanitary inspector holds to the same opinion with reference to collections classed under his department.

It is very possible that a schedule of rates will be arranged whereby owners with large accumulations will have to pay a small fee to have them carted away—and it is believed there will be little objections to this and that the property owner would gladly pay the small cost, against what he would have to pay were he to employ a private individual to do the hauling.

With the city trucks traveling over the street and making a number of pickups, it could afford to do it for much less than the owner of a private conveyance, who would have but the one pickup to haul to the dump grounds.

Just where to draw the line between free and charge pickups is a question that will have to be solved before a charge rate can be decided upon.

GOULD DIVORCE SUSTAINED

PARIS, Dec. 11.—The divorce obtained by Frank J. Gould of New York, from Edith Kelly Gould was sustained in judicial proceedings here. The court overruled Mrs. Gould's plea that it had no jurisdiction because of her being a resident of the United States.

PLANT 500,000 TREES ON BURNED OVER AREA

Five hundred thousand forest trees now in the county nursery at Riltadena are to be planted on the fire-swept mountain slopes under direction of County Forester Flintham, of Los Angeles county. The supervisors yesterday told a delegation from the Chamber of Commerce that the funds necessary will be provided. They also stated that other reforestation work is in progress and that money is available for planting trees along the stream channels in the valleys. These trees will act as water breaks and correct the channels. Forster Flintham will start work at once planting trees in the Dalton canyons above Glendora, which were entirely burned over by the fires of late summer. Flintham is a son-in-law of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Billingsley of Villa Park.

Low Egg Production

—through the Fall and Winter season is natural. Many people forget this fact and, as a result, become discouraged over their chicken investment. The cool-headed poultryman figures results by the year—not simply on a two or three months' period—and as a consequence makes money. He always feeds to the very best of his knowledge regardless of light or heavy egg production.

Moral: Don't get discouraged and go to feeding poor feed during a lull in production—and don't sell your hens. Buy good feed—it always pays. Buy "BIG N" MASH and "BIG N" SCRATCH FEED.

BUYS LOT, WILL BUILD FACING BIRCH PARK

E. E. Cooley Sells Residence to Man Who Answered Call to California

E. E. Cooley has bought a lot on Birch street between Second and Third streets, facing Birch park and he and Mrs. Cooley are now talking over plans for building a residence upon the lot next summer.

"We have always wanted a lot close to the center of the city, so that we could build a residence on it and make it our home," said Cooley, "and now we have exactly what we wanted."

The lot is within the district in which construction must be fire proof. In order to meet that condition, Cooley proposes to make the house of concrete.

The purchase was made of a Los Angeles man through the Poston Realty Co.

Cooley has recently sold two residences that he owned here. One of these, located at 509 West Sixth St., was sold to F. W. Eddie, who arrived here from Lake Okech, Mich. Eddie came to California sixteen years ago with Cooley, and he remained here eight months. He then returned to Michigan.

"Ever since he got back there he has been wanting to come back to California," said Cooley, "and now he is here and he proposes to stay here the rest of his life." The new home is occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Eddie and their son.

The other sale made by Cooley was of the residence at 702 South Van Ness. The sale was to Mr. Stonebrake of Huntington Beach.

AMERICAN FRUIT GROWERS WILL BUILD

FULLERTON, Dec. 11.—Fullerton's industrial district is expanding on account of the growing increase in the volume of business as a result of increased crops being produced on lands adjacent to this city.

The latest improvement in the industrial district is an addition to the already large establishment of the American Fruit Growers (incorporated), located at the corner of Spadra and Walnut avenues just north of the Santa Fe tracks.

Work has commenced on a new building 293x60 feet in size with a concrete basement under the entire structure which will be located to the west of the present building of the company.

The building will be a huge structure, one-story in height, constructed of wood and concrete.

The basement will be used almost exclusively for the handling of walnuts and will be equipped with the new and modern machinery for the handling of the crop.

SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA

ONTARIO, Dec. 11.—There's $250.67 lying loose in Ontario with no one claiming it. The money is a part of a fund raised during the war for the relief of Belgian and French orphans. A large amount was sent overseas but this $250.67 was collected after the fund was closed.

The committee has decided to apply the money for some worthy local organization.

SANTA BARBARA, Dec. 11.—The school census takers have completed the compilation of figures for this city, but overlooked 300 children. The figures show there should be 2248 children in the schools, but there are 2540, according to the monthly report of the principals. The census takers claim they have been diligent and say the parents must have given wrong information.

RIVERSIDE, Dec. 11.—For the second time within a week a Japanese is in the Riverside county jail charged with bootlegging. PLANS OUT FOR NEW BLOCK ON E. AMERIGE

The building will be one-story, fronting 60 feet on Amerige and will be 30 feet in depth. They will contain four rooms in all, three rooms suitable for small stores and offices and one will be constructed especially for a barber shop.

Permits at Fullerton For the Month Exceeded All Previous Issues

FULLERTON, Dec. 11.—November is the banner month of the year in Fullerton so far as it relates to building permits.

I. H. Dysinger, building inspector, reports that permits to the amount of $109,980 had been issued for the month.

The largest single permit was for the Masonic temple, amounting to $55,000.

What makes the report particularly interesting is the fact that all of the permits except the one for the Masonic temple are for new residences or additions to residences.

The report will give one an idea of the large number of homes under construction in the city, the permits calling for 22 residences for November.

The largest amount for a residence is that of F. P. Wood, which is being constructed on West Commonwealth and is for $8000.

Mr. Dysinger states that notwithstanding the high prices of material and labor, there are a better class of buildings under construction in the city this fall than when materials and labor were much cheaper.

Tartar on Teeth

Shows 'That You Don't Clean Them—Note These Facts

All Statements Approved by High Dental Authorities

This is to men and women who find that brushed teeth discolor and decay. Who find that tartar forms, or pyorrhea starts. You are not keeping teeth clean. You let a film remain and the damage is traced to it.

Dental science has found a way to end film. It is now embodied in a dainty tooth paste which millions are employing. We urge you to try it ten days at our cost and see the results for yourself.

That Film on Teeth Can Now Be Ended in This Way

You can feel on your teeth a slimy film, ever-present, ever-forming. That film is the great tooth wrecker. Dental science now traces nearly all tooth troubles to it.

The film clings to the teeth, gets between the teeth, enters crevices and stays. The tooth brush does not end it. The ordinary dentifrice does not dissolve it. So millions find that teeth discolor and decay despite the daily brushing.

Why Teeth Discolor

That film is what discolors—not the teeth. It is the basis of tartar. It holds food substance which ferments and forms acid. It holds the acid in contact with the teeth to cause decay.

Millions of germs breed in it. They, with tartar, are the chief cause of pyorrhea.

Dental science, after years of searching, has found a way to combat film. Many able authorities have proved its efficiency. For five years it has been subjected to every sort of clinical and laboratory test.

Now, for home use, it is embodied in a dentifrice called Pepsodent. Leading dentists all over America are now urging its adoption. This week we offer a 10-Day Tube to anyone who asks. And we urge that someone in every home prove its unique effects.

Pepsodent

The New-Day Dentifrice

A scientific film combatant, certified by high authorities and now urged for daily use by leading dentists everywhere.

R. H. Meyer is expected home from Omaha, where he has been connected with the Wright and Wilhelm Hardware company for a long time. He has owned property in California for a number of years, but has kept his position in this company, of which he is a stockholder. Mr. Meyer's family is living on their ranch near here and Mr. Meyer has given up his business in the east and expects to spend all his time in the future on his ranch.

An instructor from Fullerton High school district will, in the future, hold a class one day every week and instruct pupils in agriculture, beside farming classes in fruit raising, poultry raising and instruction in all forms of economics. This course, it is believed, will prove very beneficial and will be quite an addition to the present school program.

Laguna Beach

LAGUNA BEACH, Dec. 11.—In an action before Judge Whitten Monday, J. N. Isch recovered judgment against F. P. Whitcomb upon a lease of Laguna Beach property amounting to $35 and costs. Albert E. Tanberg appeared as attorney for plaintiff.

Sunday was a very beautiful day, warm and clear, and many people motored down to take advantage of the low tides to hunt abalones.

Frank Gates and his son Ervin Gates, Mrs. Maggie Garland, Mrs. Ellis and her son George Ellis, and Miss Dorothy Brenner motored down to Laguna from Anaheim Sunday and spent the day with Mrs. Johnson.

They found the house occupied, upon their arrival, by some friends of Dr. Terry's, the former owner of the place. The Smeltzer Telephone company is erecting a new line west of the railroad track between Smeltzer and Westminster, a distance of two miles. Owing to the recent wind, which blew down a line of poles with twenty wires for a half a mile west of Smeltzer, it was thought best to erect a more direct line, as the wires had to be removed anyway. They have been renting the lower arms of the Home Telephone company half a mile west of the railroad track. Owing to a scarcity of experienced linemen, the work of erecting this line has been greatly delayed, so that some lines are still out of use.
